The personal data you provide to us will be handled in accordance with The British Museum's Visitor Data Policy and Data Protection Code of Practice, copies of which are available on the Museum's website.

Preferred date/dates for visit:

Some of our Study Rooms are busier than others; we recommend that you contact us at least four weeks before the date you wish to visit otherwise it may be difficult to accommodate your request. Please indicate if you are planning an extended period of study which may require multiple visits. We strongly advise that you do not make special travel arrangements until we have confirmed the dates of your visit. If you are a Deaf or disabled person and have specific access requirements or will need additional support to visit the study room, please let us know here.

Reason for accessing the collection:

You may be asked to provide additional documentation if your research includes the study of very fragile, valuable, restricted, or culturally sensitive objects; or if your research involves a large volume of material.
