

Blue
group

The British Museum

Young Friends'
sleepover

Blue group's timetable

19.00 - 19.15, BP Lecture Theatre

Welcome!

Start the evening with a warm welcome in the BP Lecture Theatre. Keep alert for some important health and safety rules.

19.20 - 20.05, South stairs foyer, Room 37

Dress and Weapons in the Iron Age

Get an in depth look at the Celtic world. Discover who's who and how you can tell based on costume, weapons and jewellery in this interactive session by Experience the Iron Age.

20.15 - 21.00, Sutton Hoo gallery, Room 41

Storytelling: Celtic tales

Gather round as storyteller Ben Haggarty tells enchanting tales from the Celtic world.

21.00 - 21.50, Great Court

Breaktime

21.55 - 22.40, West Clore foyer

Combat training

Do you have what it takes to be a Celtic Warrior? Find out in our fast track Celtic combat training with Dru Felix, guaranteed to have you ready to face the brutal world of Iron Age Britain by the end of the evening.

22.45 - 23.30, Ford Centre (orange section)

Create and Illuminate

Be inspired by the distinctive Celtic art style and the glorious illuminated manuscripts in this craft workshop led by Anna Saunders. Create your own illuminated design, combining glittering letters with your own fantastic creature.

Midnight, Sleeping areas

Lights out! Bedtime

07.00 - 07.40, Great Court Cafe

Breakfast

Before breakfast please clear your sleeping area and place all your belongings in the designated holding area in the Stevenson lecture theatre.

07.20 - 08.20, Special exhibition, Sainsbury Exhibitions Gallery

Morning Activity

Discover more about the new exhibition Celts: art and identity.

08.00 - 08.45, Celts exhibition shop and Great Court shop (West side)

Visit the Celts exhibition shop and children's shop to purchase gifts for your friends and family.

09.00, Great Court

Please collect your belongings from the designated area in the Stevenson lecture theatre by 9.00am.