

Family activities

Feminine power: Ferociously feminine

Tuesday 31 May and Wednesday 1 June 2022

Event is free & drop in

A two-day family event exploring the themes of the current British Museum exhibition Feminine power: the divine to the demonic. Listen to Drag Queen Aida H Dee tell stories at Drag Queen Storytelling, storyteller Xanthe Gresham delving into the tales of goddesses and the feminine and join artist Anna Saunders to make your own fabulous empowerment badge.

Please stay with your children at all times.

Empowerment Badges with Anna Saunders

31 May and 1 June

11.00–16.00, Great Court (south-west corner)

Create flamboyant paper badges celebrating all the qualities that make you fabulous.

Suitable for ages 6+

Glorious Goddesses Storytelling with Xanthe Gresham

31 May and 1 June

11.30, 13.30, 15.00, Room 33

Listen to tales and folklore exploring goddesses from around the world.

Suitable for all ages

Drag Queen Storytelling

31 May and 1 June

11.00, 12.00, 13.00, 14.00, Room 24

Listen to Aida H Dee at the truly fabulous Drag Queen Storytelling.

Suitable for all ages

Sessions last 30 minutes

Trails, backpacks and art materials

31 May and 1 June

10.00–16.30 (backpacks available until 15.00)

Families Desk, Great Court

Suitable for all ages

Collect things to do in the galleries.

Goddess: 50 Goddesses, Spirits, Saints and Other Female Figures Who Have Shaped Belief* Book Launch with Nosy Crow

1 June only

11.00–13.00 and 14.00–16.00, Great Court south-east

Join historian Janina Ramirez to hear about her new children's book Goddess: 50 Goddesses, Spirits, Saints and Other Female Figures Who Have Shaped Belief. Meet Ramirez, take part in activities and listen to her talk about the inspiration for the book.

Suitable for ages 6+

Feminine power tattoo parlor

1 June only

11.00–13.00 and 14.00–15.30 Great Court (south-east corner)

Roll up to the empowerment tattoo parlor where you can pick up and apply temporary tattoos inspired by the book Goddess: 50 Goddesses, Spirits, Saints and Other Female Figures Who Have Shaped Belief published by Nosy Crow in collaboration with the British Museum.

Suitable for ages 3+